Programs to schools and communities in several counties in Maryland. These authentic programs and experiences are designed to inspire a passion to preserve and protect Maryland's waterways. We believe that environmental stewardship is a lifelong pursuit that starts with providing education at a young age to help students understand their impact on the environment and instill a lifetime of respect for our waterways. In 2020, a new program "Plastics Solution" was added to the program. In response to COVID-19, virtual offerings were also added. This included "Creative Nature" a weekly educational video production and "CSH20 Crafts" a craft series targeted to small children. To supplement collaborative learning while students were not able to be in school, two outdoor programs were developed and executed in partnership with a local Nursery.
